1 WALK THE YORKE & SALT LAKE TRAIL

The best way to discover Yorke Peninsula's pristine coastline is along this scenic, continuous 500km walking/cycling trail from Port Wakefield to Moonta Bay. Hop on and off the trail to explore further as you make your way around the region. The Salt Lake Trail is a self-drive tour that will take you past stunning pink, orange, blue and white salt lakes - bucket list stuff with views and surroundings that make you want to pinch yourself.

2 ARDROSSAN

ARDROSSAN VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE

The Ardrossan lookout provides a phenomenal bird's-eye view of the town, the coast and the extensive impact the dolomite quarry and silos have had on the region. Drop anchor at the Ardrossan Heritage Museum, which gives an insight into the region's maritime chronicles (shipwrecks included!) or visit Emoyeni Wines, a boutique family run winery that is family friendly too. For an unforgettable adventure, look no further than the Catch 'n' Cook Blue Swimmer Crab Experience, and savour this delicacy renowned for its sweet, succulent meat.

3 PORT VINCENT

Like most of the towns on the Yorke Peninsula, Port Vincent is an old port. It was once one of the old landing spots for the ketches going up and down the peninsula, but these days it's a well known holiday playground and it's an ideal location for fishing, crabbing, boating, sailing, swimming and snorkelling.

4 STANSBURY OYSTERS

Apart from being an attractive coastal spot for camping and fishing, Stansbury is the stronghold for an impressive supply of fresh oysters hauled straight off the coast. Get your hands dirty being a 'Deckie for a Day' on the Pacific Estate Oysters boat or pre-order your freshly shucked oysters from one of the two local operators.

5 EDITHBURGH

Situated on top of cliffs overlooking Troubridge Island, Edithburgh hosts great swimming beaches and a tidal swimming pool with a shallow area for kids. The town's jetty is renowned for its spectacular diving and ease for all levels of experience. You can expect to see a variety of marine life, including big-belly seahorses, Port Jackson sharks, leafy sea dragons and cuttlefish.

6 TROUBRIDGE ISLAND ESCAPE & CHARTER

Want to have a secluded island all to yourself? Book your unique escape with Troubridge Island Escape. Located next to the only prefabricated cast iron lighthouse in South Australia built in 1856 (now retired). Share your island holiday with the little penguins colony, migratory shore birds, playful dolphins and Sammy the resident sea lion.

7 WAROOKA

On Yorke you are never far from great beaches and Warooka is no exception, with Flaherty's Beach and Hardwicke Bay a short drive away. Whilst here make sure to check out local gallery Baker Bros. Top Shop Gallery or check Ballara's Art and Lifestyle Retreat events calendar.

8 MARION BAY

Sitting on the doorstep of Dhillba Guuranda - Innes National Park, Marion Bay is an idyllic coastal town popular for swimming and surfing. The town is also a popular fishing destination, get a guide to point you in the right direction with the likes of Reef Encounters Fishing Charters. After a day spent beachside, quieten your rumbling stomach at the Marion Bay Tavern - where you'll find local seafood staples and wood oven pizzas. Be sure to also check out the boutique Studio Surf Art Gallery and Café, featuring coastal inspired artwork by local artists, you may even find one to take home. Hire a glass kayak or stand up paddle board from Neptune's to explore the coastline, or join their tours and surf lessons for great day out on the water.

9 DHILBA GUURANDA - INNES NATIONAL PARK

A must do on your Yorke Peninsula itinerary. Get amongst this awe-inspiring national park that delivers striking seascapes overlooking Ethel Wreck and Pondalowie Bay. Adventure awaits with a brilliant blend of wildlife, bushwalking, camping and surfing. Jump onboard a Marion Bay Ocean Safari and see the stunning Innes coastline from a different perspective whilst spotting dolphins and wildlife.

10 MINLATON

Pull up a stool at local gem Watsacowie Brewing Company and enjoy a pint or two. At the edge of town, you can also discover the Harry Butler Red Devil Monoplane and the story behind Captain Butler's love affair with flying. Immerse yourself in the rich history of the region's First Nations people, with a hosted walking tour or gourmet bush food tour with Nharangga Aboriginal Cultural Tours.

11 BARLEY STACKS WINES

The grapes at this sustainably minded winery are grown, crushed, fermented and bottled on-site, making it a must-see cellar door for any wine lover. Pair your favourite drop with a house made pizza or regional platter.

12 SUNNY HILL DISTILLERY

Yorke Peninsula's first crop to drop microdistillery is situated just north of Arthurton atop one of the highest points of the peninsula. Come and enjoy a craft spirit made entirely on-site, whilst taking in the luxurious tasting room and enjoying the incredible views stretching all the way west to Spencer Gulf.

13 PORT HUGHES

With its clear blue waters and iconic long jetty, Port Hughes is widely renowned as a fishing hot spot. The Tavern, General Store, CopperClub and Love The Grind are all excellent choices for a feed. The Dunes golf course is the jewel crown of the township, designed by Greg Norman. Tee up and play 18 or nine holes.

14 MOONTA & MOONTA BAY

If the fantastic view of the bay wasn't enough for you, then the Coffee Barn Gelateria, The Cornish Kitchen, Taste the Yorke, Splash Town water park and the iconic Moonta Mines Tourist Railway and Sweets Shop are just some of the places that make this historical part of the peninsula so much fun. Unwind awhile on an e-bike adventure with Copper Trails Bike Hire and stop at local cafés, breweries, and distilleries along the way.

15 COPPER COAST VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE

The visitor information centre is the gateway to The Farm Shed Museum, a National Trust Museum and the very popular Copper Coast Putt-Putt and the Copper Coast Indoor Play Centre. Prepare for the kids to never want to leave!

16 WALLAROO

One of the most popular coastal escapes on the Yorke Peninsula is also the perfect family destination. The township boasts an impressive amount of things to see and do, including the Bond Store which is an exciting microbrewery, distillery and restaurant all under the same roof. For the little one's, book a Little Farmer Tour at Tarnasey Farm, an experience they'll remember forever. For something more relaxing enjoy a coffee at the North Beach Kitchen, and for a good meal and drink book yourself a table at The Smelter. Keen fisher? Fishing fanatics flock to Wallaroo to cast a line off the famous jetty; expect good hauls of snapper, King George whiting, squid and flathead.

17 PORT BROUGHTON

Port Broughton is ideally situated close to the Southern Flinders Ranges, Clare Valley wineries and the Copper Coast, making it a great place to base yourself and visit several different regions. If the family has energy to burn, a stay at the Port Broughton Tourist Park Waterslides and Splash Park is a must, hours of fun to be had for the whole family! Located on the large open foreshore, the Port Broughton All-Abilities Playground is designed for children of all abilities, providing a great location for a family BBQ and a convenient stop for parents.
